

Addictive Disorder Regulatory Authority (ADRA)

SINGLE COURSE PROVIDER

The ADRA operates a program to register a qualifying organization as an Approved Educational Provider (AEP) to implement the provisions of the addictive disorders Act R.S. 37:3371-3384. The rule governing this program was promulgated according to law and is recorded in LAC 46:LXXX.1707. The rule allows an organization to be granted approval for a single course without becoming an approved provider for multiple courses. The following instructions are directed toward those organizations.

The single course provider may:

- Announce to the public and advertise that the course meets the standards of the ADRA only if approval has been granted. Prior to approval, the organization may state that ADRA approval is pending only if application has been made. Otherwise, the organization is prohibited from making any statement regarding ADRA approval of its course.

Offer to provide a certificate of completion for the use of substance abuse, compulsive gambling, and prevention counselors/specialists and trainees only after ADRA approval has been granted and all required information is included on the certificate. An organization may be granted approval as a single course provider provided:

A satisfactory application form is received at the office of the ADRA prior to offering the course.

The organization documents the course description including the educational objectives, course outline, instructional modalities, relationship of the material to the 12 core functions or 6 performance domains, and which renewal education area(s) are addressed.

The organization documents the qualifications of the instructors including description of the education, training, and experience, which prepared them to teach the course.

The organization agrees to provide a certificate of completion containing the same information required of an AEP.

The organization agrees to file a course report in the same fashion as an AEP and to include student evaluations of that course.

Single course provider cost is $ 150.00 for course check or money order made payable to ADRA.

Questions, comments, and/or suggestions may be directed in writing to the ADRA at:
